

 Kriváň – a national peak of the Slovak nation	 Swedens most famous arena for sports etc. Stockholm	 Skagen - the boundary between the Skagerrak and the Kattegat.

 The Štrbské lake – the famous one in the HighTatras	 Gröna lund is an Amusement Park in Stockholm	 Bornholm - a Danish island in the Baltic Sea, to the east of most of Denmark

 Tatralandia – the best known waterpark near Lipt. Mikuláš	 Kolmården Zoo is one of Europe's largest zoos.	 Himmelbjerget/ The sky mountain - 147 metres above sea level

 Vlkolínec – a typical wooden village, UNESCO site	 The Royal Palace in Stockholm.	 In Mønsted Limestone Caves there are more than 60 kilometres of underground paths.

 Gerlach, 2 655 m.- the highest peak in the High Tatras	 In Junsele zoo there is a very nice pedigree of White tigers.	 The West Jutland heaths were formed by melt water from the ice cover

 Chamois – a typical animal in the Tatras	 Victoria, the Crown Princess of Sweden.	 Råbjerg Mile - the largest moving dune in Northern Europe

 Demänovská Cave of Liberty – the most visited one	 Kebnekaise is the highest mountain witch is located in Kiruna.	 At Møn's Cliff, Stevns' Cliff and in Faxe Limestone Quarry

 Piešťany - a famous spa resort in the western Slovakia	 Wild strawberries grows almost all over the country and are free to pick.	 The Great Belt Bridge which connects Zealand with Fyn. Tunnel and bridge.

	Košice - center of the eastern Slovakia with a Gothic cathedral		Esrangle Space Center, located in Kiruna 200 km north of the Arctic Circle.		7,000 bunkers from WWII on the western coast of Jutland.

	B.Štiavnica – an ancient mining town, UNESCO site		Gekas Ullared is the biggest department store in Scandinavia.		The west coast of Denmark. Rough and windy

	Bratislava – a capital with the river Danube		Ladislav Nagy has played for MODO in Ornsköldsвик since 2010.		20 % of the Danish electricity consumption are produced by windmills.

	The Váh – the longest Slovak river near Trenčín		The park of the majestic High Coast is a World Heritage.		New harbour Copenhagen. H.C.Andersen had a house here